"Honor to whom Honor is due."—And surely if honor is ever due to those who stand up boldly and unflinchingly in behalf of the noble principles of the National Domocracy, then is it due to such journals as the Richmond Enquirer, and others of that stamp. We have been refreshed by reading its manly articles in defence of the Administration, and the National Democracy, North and South. Its articles have the clear ring to them, which cannot fail to carry conviction. Especially have we admired the course of the Enquirer, in its manner of dealing with such disorganizers and southern sectionalists as the Richmond South, the Charleston Mercury, and the New Orleans Delta. They have been DR. EASTERLY'S THIS MEDICINE WILL CURE,

A MONG all the celebrated remedies for Ague and Fever first and foremost in rank stands Dr. Easterly's Fever and Ague Killer. During the last five years this remedy has cured over two hundred thousand cases, which has established its efficacy beyond all doubt and controversy as the best and only certain cure for this distressing disease. It is a positive cure, both speedy and permanent. It will cure the worst cases, no matter of how leag standing or how bad. It will also cure enlargement of the Spleen, Ague Cakes, &c.

Reader, have you the Ague and Fever? Then procure Dr. Easterly's Fever and Ague Killer, and use it according to the directions—it will cure you. Have you friends suffering with Ague and Fever? Go tell them to procure Dr. Easterly's Fever and Ague Killer and suffer no longer. This is the medicine to use, for this plain reason: It always cures and is perfectly harmless to the most delicate constitution, or tender infant.

A MONSTER TURTLE .- We find the following graphic account of the excitement caused by a "distinguished arrival" at the National Capital, "distinguished arrival" at the National Cap.tal, in the Washington States, of the 8th inst.

At the fishing shore on Point Lookout, at the mouth of the Potomacriver, Capt. Samuel Gibson took, last week, a green sea turtle weighing 356 pounds—the largest one probably ever taken in our waters. It was caught in a seine, and it required the efforts of some six or eight men to land it. On being brought to the city, its owner found himself in the predicament of the man who won the elephant at a raffle—no hotel or restaurant would buy the monster whole! He was who won the elephant at a raffle—no notel or res-taurant would buy the monster whole! He was exhibited to the admiring gaze of hundreds be-fore the hotels, and little boys were engaged in punching it with sharp sticks to make it "blow." At last several restaurant keepers committed the rash act of purchasing its corpus in fifty pound slices, and quite a rivalry between these estab-iishments will probably spring up over its lament-ed remains.

A FAST WOMAN.—The ladies are becoming dangerously perfect. We really don't know why they shouldn't "rise in rebellion" some day, and take away the reins of government from us poor masculines. There are now two ladies stopping at Barretti, on Cape Island, N. J., who are equal to the best of us on bowling or shooting. One of them made twelve ten strikes in succession, and game, lately. The other one, in the meanwhile, was shooting a pistol match with two gentlemen from this city. She hit the button six times in eight shots, at ten paces, and the other two shots came within seven-eighths of an inch! She then

If the potato disease is less spoken of now than formerly, it is not because it is less prevalent, but because people are more familiar with it, and expect it from year to year as a matter of course. I was in that Convention at the time, (which ominated Van Buren) taking notes, as a Whig nominated Van Buren) taking notes, as a Whig editor, and happened to occupy a seat very near Mr. Holt, then a stranger to me, when he arose to address the Convention. He was near the back part of the church, which was a very commodious one, on Fayette street, and densely filled above and below. I shall never forget Mr. Holt's singular appearance at the time he essayed to speak. He was pale, cadaverous and apparently trembling, and for a few seconds seemed to be unable to gain the attention of the great audience which had been three days in session and appeared to be heartly thred of speech making.

Johnson, such as I had never before listened to. I was charmed, even as a political opponent of the eulogist and eulogized, and the whole Convention seemed to be charmed also, and taken captive; for, soon after, Johnson was nominated over Wm. C. Rives, for Vice President, and the Convention adjourned har-moniously. Portomac.

17 Captain Tyler, the President that was, that Botts didn't head, has written a letter about the action of the Southern Commercial Convention upon the Ashburton treaty, by which a naval force is provided to be placed on the coast of Af-rica to suppress the slave trade. We give the last paragraph; that is sufficient:

ment of this country may deem it proper to do in regard to that stipulation; but this I will ven tare to say, that, repeal when it pleases that pro-rision of the treaty, it will still find it necessary for the enforcement of the laws of the Unit States, as well as for the protection of the traffic of merchant vessels on that coast—a traffic every year increasing in value, and destined in the end to be of vast magnitude—to maintain a fleet of to be of vast magnitude—to maintain a fleet of at least eighty guns on the coast of Africa. It might be worthy of consideration by the next Commercial Convention whether, before they advise the cancelling of the provision in question, and denounce it as an insult to the South, they should not first repeal the law relative to piracy in regard to the slave trade. Very respectfully, your obedient servant, Apover 31, 1857.

The Hog Cholera.—To what an extent this malady has affected the swinish multitude in this immediate vicinity, we are not able to state correctly. We have heard of several localities in the county where the ravages of this disease have been severely felt. Our exchanges from the West generally complain of the sad havoc made by hog cholera. In some sections there is not a hog, large or small, left. All this is sad news to the consumers of such meats, and shows inevitably that prices are going—going—gone up, to a figure where this common staple is about to be come one of the luxuries of life.—Louisville THE HOG CHOLERA.-To what an extent this da a attractive appearance. Machinery and improvements on all sides bewilder the senses.

Mechanics' Agricultural, Pomological and Implement Halls are well filled, not only in variety but themselves. This class of do-nothings are likewise a tax upon the labor of the working classes. They eat, drink and dress extravagantly, and produce nothing for their own sustenance or to add to the general wealth. We believe that the general opinion is that all who were known to be non-producing classes outnumber the producing, and it is astonishing how little productive labor is required to support a community. If all were compelled to follow some useful occupationsome pursuit which would contribute to the necessities, the comfort, or even the luxuries of deep, if not loud. Mr. Robinson attributes his life, the burdens of all would be relieved and the general well being promoted. Labor should not only be dignified, but made a necessity, and those who have no occupation which will add to the general welfare should be regarded with dishonor. A drone should be looked upon as a pest to society.

Another difficulty is the general disposition to do business of all kinds upon credit, or borrowed capital, for which usurious interest is paid. These But just at the critical moment, I well recollect, Shadrack Penn, then of the Louisville Public Advertiser, and Robert T. Lytle, or Cincinnation both now in their graves—simultaneously jumped upon the seats and cried out at the top of their volces, "A member up! a member up!" This cry arrested the attention of the Convention, and drew all eyes toward Mr. Holt, who immediately efforts result in almost universal disaster. As a This mains. And a business prosecuted upon credit, intention of the Savings Bank to resume busiwhich overtakes it.

There is one consolation however. All the failures that have occurred or which may, have not lessened the goht and silver and the actual capital of the country. The revulsions occurring may shut it up for a while, and failures will transfer it from the possssion of one to another, but the real currency of the world remains without diminution. The large crops of grain, of cotton, of sugar-the abundance of everything necessary to sustain life-will give to all enough to eat and to wear, and if the foreign demand should be good for our surplus produce, we have enough to enrich the country and prosper all its healthful enterprises. In due time, "confidence" will be restored, and with it, money will be pleatiful for all the legitimate purposes of trade.

We find the following just views in the New York Journal of Commerce, upon another class of evils, which deserve not only general consideration, but appropriate remedy:

COMMERCIAL FRAUDS .- In the midst of the numerous local acts which have occupied the Britisis Legislature during its past season, there is one especially calculated to interest us. We mean that which provides for the punishment of "Frau-dulent Breaches of Trans".

This enactment, which purposes to visit this class of offences with great severity, was brought about by a state of affairs in that country. In hich seemingly was no longer endurable. The additional stock thus secured, by the fictitious demand which it created for shares in the company, of course enabled them to carry on the game; but at last the bubble burst—as in all such cases it is is ultimately certain to do—and involved the whole in dishonor or in ruin; the Directors emerive country efactions to gious order.

The mere loss of character seems to have affected those individuals but little. When, however, at last Sir John Dean Paul, the wealthy banker, was sentenced to transportation for four-the Savings Bank in this city, managed by Mr. Joseph R. Robinson, has gone under. Yesterday morning the following notice upon the door announced the result :

To WHOM IT MAY CONCERS. - The Savings Bank and all the private property of the propri-eter for the benefit of its creditors. The condi-tion of its affairs, as soon as correctly ascertained,

We ascertain that this concern owes its depositors about $15,000, many of whom deposited small amounts for safe-keeping. Some depositors are preferred in the assignment, but Mr. Robinson thinks he will be able to pay all. We hope this will be the result. This Bank was organized under the general banking law, but has no circula tion. Capt. Voorhees was its President. The interested in the management of the Bank will be individually responsible for its' indebtedness If so it will make all claims against the concern good. No excitement attended the announcemen of this failure, although the depositors cursed failure to the distrust produced by the closing of the Bank of the Capitol, which caused a run upon him by his depositors.

From an examination of the assets of the Bank there appears to be abundant to pay the depositors. It will, however, require some time to make these resources available. All the property of the Bank is in the hands of Capt. Voorhees, the assignee, whose well known integrity is a guarantee that it will be faithfully and properly applied. It will be seen by a notice in another place, that the depositors are requested to leave their books at the banking-house for settlement and to obtain certificates of deposites for the amount due them. The statistical tables of mortality show a reduction in this country, of the proportion of deaths from pulmonary diseases. Dr. Ayer attributes this result to the effect of his Cherry Pectoral. He also asserts that the cures from his Cathartic Pills give reason to believe they will, as they come into more general use, materially reduce the mortality from those particular diseases for which they are designed. From what we know of his preparations, we think he has grounds for his claims, and if he has, it is an attainment of which an Emperor might be proud. Rarely is it permitted any one to know that his skill is bestowing health and life to the masses of his fellow men.

And for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need notspeak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and aimost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any eivilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects, and fewer yet the communities anywhere which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safes remedy that can be employed for infants and yo ung per ons. Parents should have it in store against the insiduous enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the Cherry Pectoral saves more lives by the consumptions it prevents than those it cures.
